JUDGE FLEM D. SAMPSON

The Choice of the People Throughout the District---Stands High
Wherever Known and is Especially Popular in Knox
Where Every Voter Knows Him.

Did More to Build up Knox County While Judge of the County Court Than Any Man
Before Him.

Comes Before the Voters With A Spotless Record
and Relies on his Friends for Support.

LOOKS LIKE A WINNER TO US.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the official announcement of Judge F. D. Sampson for the nomination for Circuit Judge of this the 34th Judicial District of Kentucky.

Judge Sampson is in every way qualified to fill this position with credit to himself and with honor to the district.

For the past sixteen years he has been a member of the Knox county Bar and from the very first has been recognized as among the most able members of the bar, and his large practice and remarkable success has won him a reputation as a lawyer throughout the entire State.

In 1905 he was elected County Judge of Knox County without opposition and served to the end of his term to the entire satisfaction of the entire county. He was urged to make the race a second time but he declined on account of pressing law business, and has never sought or asked for any other office.

The pressure and influence of his friends, both in Knox and

Whitley counties, has caused him to become candidate for this nomination, and he is in the race to win, and we predict that he will win by a large majority.

From the very time that the committee fixed the date of the primary his friends have been earnestly at work in his behalf, and from present indications he will receive practically the entire vote of the district even if some other candidate should decide to enter the race.

Judge Sampson is a man of firm conviction and possesses courage and manhood sufficient to decide for himself any matter that might come before him without being influenced by relatives or associates when matters of law are involved. Judge Sampson knows the law and if elected, which he is sure to be, will see that it is properly enforced without favor or favor.

A vote for Judge Sampson is a vote for the betterment of the district. Don't fail to vote for him in the primary, February 4, 1911.

Judge Flem D. Sampson,
As he appeared Five years ago when he was elected Judge of the Knox County Court. Since then he shaves clean, but otherwise looks much the same.

We will present a new cut before the campaign closes.

Masonic Meeting

Last Tuesday, December 27, was the annual election day for Mountain Lodge 187 F. & A. M. and the following were elected for the ensuing year:

Read P. Black, Master
L. M. Cole, S. W.
John B. Gate, J. W.
W. H. McDonald, Secretary
H. C. Black, Treasurer
S. P. Vaughn, S. D.
W. C. Lockhart, J. D.
W. W. Tinsley, Tyler
J. H. Blackburn, Chaplain.
The Master and secretary had good reports and gave a general report of the building of the new hall. There were 43 present which is considered a good attendance, considering the roads, and the fact that the Lodge was held in the daytime, as many of the members could not attend on this account.

Haymakers

The Haymakers, a side degree in Red Manship, was installed here last Wednesday night by Dr. C. F. Melton, of Louisville, and will be known as Tchoupiouitas Association of Haymakers, No. 111½. The following officers were elected and installed:

Chief Haymaker, W. H. McDonald; Assistant Haymaker, J. M. Wilson; Overseer, Ralph Tuggee; Collector of Straws, Fred Hemphill; Keeper of Bundles, George M. Golden. The appointive officers are, Horn Blower, John Lawson; Boss Driver, G. W. Tee; Guard of the Hav Loft, W. C. Lockhart; Guard of the Bars, Door, I. H. Golden.

C. G. Black and Chas. Davis were made Past Chief Haymakers and W. H. McDonald elected as Representative to the next Great Council.

Resolutions Adopted

The following resolutions were adopted by the Knox County Bar before adjournment of Court here last week:

The Attorneys and Officers of the Knox Circuit Court desire to have placed upon the enduring records of this Court their sincere thanks to Hon. Chas. C. Marshall, for the able and impartial manner in which he has presided over this Court during this Special Term just now coming to a close, and to assure him that he will carry with him to his home and people our well wishes, high esteem and hope for the continuance of his health and a long life of happiness.

It is ordered that these resolutions be spread at large upon the records and that a copy be sent to the Hon. Chas. C. Marshall at Shelbyville, Kentucky.

[Attest]: W. H. McDonald, Clerk K. C. C.

Quer Beliefs.

The Figian cannibal's emotions have reference for the greater part to food, so he worships the god Matawaloo, who has eight stomachs and is always eating.

The Tengans have a very curious dogma to account for a day and night being twenty-four hours long. It used to be less; the sun used to go down too quick. So one day a man caught it with a noose, and it had to go slower thereafter.

The ancient Persians believed that the sun once came down to the earth and laid two eggs and then went back up again. From these two eggs man and woman sprung, hence that yellow streak in the human race.

Fire in Country

Last Monday morning about 2:00 o'clock Mr. W. M. Ty was awakened to find that his home was on fire and was almost ready to fall in upon himself and family. They had just barely time to escape, and one of the children came near being burned in the building.

The entire house and household goods were destroyed by the flames. Mr. Ty carried an insurance of $1,500 on the house and household goods which was not sufficient to meet one-half the loss sustained.

His many friends extend sympathy to Mr. Ty and family in this heavy loss.

Black Sam's Christmas Grace.

¶ Lawd, look down upon dis dish
An' miracle dis meat,
An' dat feast ob seber fish
We'll hab too muc ter eat.
¶ An' ole Moses bit de stone
An' made de watab poub,

A Moonless Month.

The month of February, 1866, was in one respect the most remarkable in the world's history. It had no full moon. January had two full moons and so had March, but February had none. Do you realize what a rare thing in nature it was? It had not occurred since the creation of the world, and it will not occur again, according to the computation of astronomers for 2,500,000 years.

NEXT WEEK

Will Mark the Opening of
A New Year

Let's Carry Out at Least
Some of Our Good
Resolutions

With the close of this week the old year dies and the beginning of next week marks the beginning of a new year, so now is a good time to begin to form new resolutions, not for the purpose of breaking them in a few days, but for the purpose of living up to them, and by so doing make ourselves and also others better by it.

As a town, the citizens of Barbourville should resolve that we will not allow the next year to come to come to a close without our having done something to try to benefit the entire town. Let's all agree upon this resolution, if nothing more, that we will make it a part of our business to see that some kind of a manufacturing plant is established in our town before the end of the coming year.

If we make that one resolution and live up to it, we will have done at least some good for ourselves and for the town.

Let every one who wants to see Barbourville have a factory established during the coming year, express his desire on a post card and mail it to the Advocate, and in that way we may know your wants and will publish the result. Do it at once. Tell us your idea on a post card.

CHRISTMAS 1910

Fillingly Celebrated by Most of Barbourville's
Populace

Christmas was celebrated by most all the churches, and the citizens generally, distributing good cheer to all alike. The Christmas festivities in the churches were most beautiful and the little Sunday School folks did their part in the opening exercises in well regulated order, and the little folks, as well as not a few of the older people, had a genuine old fashioned Christmas feeling for the little folks of Barbourville.

And some had so much Christmas dispensed from the "Little Brown Jug," which fixed them in good shape to celebrate Christmas in a staggering way under the load from the wine cup; but they were all filled with the "spiritis" of good cheer to their companions who were also filled with the same kind of "Old Taylor" spirits.

Many presents were exchanged between neighbor and neighbor; between the young man and his best girl; which will link neighbors into closer friendship; and weld the link that binds the young man to his best girl in closer relations in life.

In all Christmas was a beautiful, bright day, and the good cheer distributed here among Barbourville's populace—both little and big—will be long remembered as a joyous season of pleasures. —[A. W. S.

A Startling Report

It is somewhat amusing to see how the Democratic press is trying to stir up strife within the ranks of the Republican party. A dispatch to the Courier-Journal this week reports a breach between Caleb Powers and Charles Finley over the Judicial Primary, when in fact, there is no truth whatever in the report. Mr. Powers has gone to Washington on some important business matters and is taking no hand in the Primary, and as yet there is no other candidate in the race against Judge Sampson, so that it is evident that the reported rupture between these two distinguished Kentucky Statesmen is all bosh and originated in the fertile brain of some Democratic politician whose wish was the father to the thought.

It will take more than a Democratic report to convince us that such a report is true.

A Correction

Last week we mentioned the death of George Faulkner, and in doing so we stated that he was a son of D. B. Faulkner and a brother of Prof. W. C. Faulkner, of this city. In this we were misinformed as the deceased was a son of G. M. Faulkner.

Have your photo made while Snavely is in town. He will be here only a few days.

Pastor Dances In Pulpit

Wilkesbarre, Pa.—Rev. George R. Finn, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal church here, did a song and dance in his pulpit for the edification of the congregation. To the tune of "In the Good Old Summer Time," the minister danced and sang to demonstrate to the congregation that they should pay attention to their physical as well as their spiritual welfare.

Good photos made while you wait at Snavely's. Over the Arcade.

WONDERFUL PROGRESS

Greatest Strides in History
Have Been Made in Modes of Travel in the United States Since the Days of
Daniel Boone and Davy
Crockett.

Places on Wheels Speed
Like the Wind Through Regions of Beauty and
Bloom While Chill Winter
Enwraps the North.

In the days of Daniel Boone and Davy Crockett and Kit Carson, travel to and through the South was either on foot or horseback and full of hardships. But today one may leave any Northern city, and in a day or two, traveling in perfect comfort under care sufficient for even the most delicate invalid, be set down in a part of the country which will make him rub his eyes and believe that winter never comes.

The Northern Winter's Heart is Cold,
The Southland's Heart is Warm,
And in the South the Train encircles
the world with a host of joys unnumbered.
We find an ever present charm,
Where Winter has no place.

Winter means to the Northland, ice, snow, sleet and chill, cold and discomfort; to the Southland, blue and brilliant skies, genial airs and balmy sunshine, the unrestricted pleasures of outdoor life, scenery that never fails to enchant, foliage of perennial green, and flowers of perpetual bloom. The abundant and delightful outdoor life of the Southern winter is its chiefest charm, and no attractive feature has been overlooked or forgotten. Golf may be played on the finest links in the country; tennis on clay courts kept in the pink of perfection; golf bathing in water at a temperature of 70 degrees and above, riding, motoring over picturesque roads through tropical scenery and on the hard sand beach; yachting, rowing and fishing at sea and in land locked waters; chair-wheeling and bicycling on palm-lined promenades and through tropical jungles. The finest climate in the world—every day a June day, full of sunshine. For the hunter, the South provides practically every feathered and furred creature from quail and squirrels to wild turkey and deer; and for the fisherman, a bewildering variety of game fish from the rainbow-hued trout to the majestic Tarpon. The Queen & Crescent Route has made it possible for the winter traveler from the North to revel in luxurious "palaces on wheels," which speed like the wind through regions of beauty and bloom. The many thriving cities, attractive resorts and historic points along the route make it doubly interesting. With the superb express trains, electric lighted and equipped with the latest types of Pullman drawing-room, state-room, club, library and observation sleeping cars, it is little wonder that so many tourists in the Northern and middle States visit the South by this great railway system. This road operates the finest trains in the United States between Cincinnati, Ohio, and Jacksonville, Fla., and New Orleans, La., and low round trip winter tourist rates are being made from all points along the line.

The Lodge Beyond The Blue.

Is there Lodge room up in heaven.
Is there a master and brothers to?
Where the signs and grips are given,
In that land beyond the blue.

It is said, we know each other,
Tell me if you know its' true;
That we will use the word brother,
In that land beyond the blue.

I think I hear the Angels singing,
Masons, Red Men, K. P. to;
I can hear their voices ringing,
In the land beyond the blue.

The day is coming, not far distant,
Let us all our vows renew;
So that we may join that meeting,
In the land beyond the blue.

There we will meet the Great Grand Master,
Wardens, Deacons, brothers, to;
Singing anthems everlasting,
In that land beyond the blue.

There we will see them from all Nations,
When the gates we have passed through;
Oh, the many million Masons,
In that land beyond the blue.

If we knew we would not meet there,
Tis world here we sure would rue;
But we know good Masons go there,
To that land beyond the blue.

Now we end the labor of the old year,
And begin upon the new;
Let's get ready for the Grand Lodge,
In that Lodge beyond the blue.

If we never meet again here,
Let us to each be kind and true,
If we expect to meet each other,
In the land beyond the blue.

Fraternally,

Cheaper to Live

Someone who takes a rosy view of life, gets off the following:

"There are men who argue that living is high, but they might try dying. A live man gets shaved for ten cents but a dead man pays a dollar and never kicks. A good kersey overcoat costs $25, but a wooden one costs $100. A grave digger will plant potatoes for twenty cents an hour, but for planting you he gets four times as much. A carriage to the theatre costs $2, but one to the cemetery costs $5. A saloon keeper will fill your horse to bursting for 50 cents, but an embalmer gets $7.50 for the job. Come to think of it there are lots of things left to live for in this world despite the high prices and the contrary weather."—Ex.

MARRIAGE.

A game of chance in which the chances are about even. The man leads at first, but after leaving the altar he usually follows breathlessly in his wife's trail. The rules are very confusing. If a masked player holds you up some night at the end of a long gun, it is called "robbery" and entitles you to telephone the police; but if your wife holds you up for a much larger amount the next morning it is termed "diplomacy" and counts in her favor. In this, as in other games of life, wives are usually allowed more privileges than other outlaws.

JUDGE SAMSON FOR

CIRCUIT JUDGE.

The people throughout the county, and so far as we can learn, throughout the district, hail with delight the announcement of Judge Flem D. Sampson for the Circuit Judgeship of this the 34th Judicial District of Kentucky, subject to the Republican Primary, to be held Feb. 4, 1911.

JUDGE SAMSON FOR

CIRCUIT JUDGE.

The people throughout the county, and so far as we can learn, throughout the district, hail with delight the announcement of Judge Flem D. Sampson for the Circuit Judgeship of this the 34th Judicial District of Kentucky.

Judge Sampson is a lawyer of well known ability, and his fair dealings with his fellow man has won for him the confidence, esteem and respect of everyone, and now that they have an opportunity to honor him by elevating him to this exalted position, they stand ready and waiting to cast their votes for him.

Judge Sampson is of a generous hearted disposition and was never known to refuse to aid deserving ones when called upon, and his public spiritedness has caused him to contribute liberally to every enterprise that has come this way.

Both of our colleges have received a generous subscription from him, as well as every church in the town has been materially aided by his liberality.

Such men as Judge Sampson deserve recognition and when he is elected, as he doubtless will be, he will stand as high, so far as legal qualifications go, as any Judge in the State.

Knox is lining up solidly for Judge Sampson and is expecting Whitley to join with her in making his nomination unanimous.

Every little country village has an ambition to become a trade center and a boom city, with no special natural features or geographical advantages. Under such conditions what is most needed is some enterprise on the part of its local capitalists. They must make the first advance in the uncertain field of development. They must capitalize small factories and see that they are employed. When the local business is finally developed and proves to the world that they are successful, then outside enterprises will be sure to step in and enjoy your prosperity with you. Just like a fellow who finds a favorite fishing hole and catches fish, and all the other fishermen who see that he is catching will drop their hooks right by the side of the lucky fisherman. The business men of any town should stop talking and hoping for others to do some thing for the town. They should get together themselves and prove to the world that they have a money making town. No outsider will want to fish in our swimming hole until we prove that they can catch fish.

We have for years past noticed the very undesirable feature in the attendance of the public school in the higher grade, viz.: There are, as a rule, many more girls attending than boys. Why is this? Where are the boys? They leave school, many

First Christmas Observance.

Christmas gets its name from the mass celebrated in the early days of the Christian Church in honor of the birth of Christ, its first solemnization having been ordered by Pope Telesphorus. This was in or before the year 128, for in that year Pope Telesphorus died.

At first Christmas was what is known as a movable feast, just as Easter is now, and owing to misunderstandings was celebrated as late as April or May. In the fourth century an ecclesiastical investigation was ordered, and upon the authority of the tables of the censors in the Roman archives December 25th was agreed upon as the date of the Savior's nativity. Tradition fixed the hour of His birth at about midnight, and this led to the celebration of a midnight mass in all the churches, a second at dawn and a third in the later morning at ten o'clock.

Who Was There That You Knew?

In the shadowy ranks of those who marched to death or death victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed the world, there is the figure of a boy, a youth. Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs that were lost and are now again found.

3,500 Long Lost Photographs of the Civil War

THEY were lost in a trunk of photographs in the United States Government or in the private possession of a man who had charge of a handsome portfolio. These photographs are very valuable, and you send us $1.00 to cover the cost of mailing and we will add a copy of a historical standard work on the Civil War to the collection and add it to your library. At the same time we will tell you of this $10,000 collection of Civil War photographs now in the possession of the United States Government. Please send us the coupon at once.

Send me free of charge, the 12 reproductions of Civil War photographs ready to frame in a handsome portfolio. Also include the price of mailing. Please add my name to the list of those who have made the whole collection my own. Let me know if it costs to cover the cost of mailing.

Try to make the atmosphere healthy
Fire all crakers, loafers and bums
Let your object be the welfare, growth and promotion of your town and its people. Speak well of public spirited men, and also be one of them yourself. Be honest with your fellow-men and just to your friends.—Richmond Climax.

Cheaper to Live

Someone who takes a rosy view of life, gets off the following:

"There are men who argue that living is high, but they might try driving. A live man gets shaved for ten cents but a dead one pays a dollar and never kicks. A good kersey overcoat cost $25, but a wooden one costs $100. A grave digger will plant potatoes for twenty cents an hour, but for planting you he gets four times as much. A carriage to the theatre costs $2, but one to the cemetery cost $5. A saloon keeper will fill your horse to bursting for 50 cents, but an embalmer gets $7.50 for the job. Come to think of it there are lots of things left to live for in this world despite the high prices and the contrary weather."—Ex.

MARRIAGE.

A game of chance in which the chances are about even. The man leads at first, but after leaving the altar he usually follows breathlessly in his wife's trail. The rules are very confusing. If a masked player holds you up some night at the end of a long gun, it is called "robbery" and entitles you to telephone the police; but if your wife holds you up for a much larger amount the next morning it is termed "diplo-macy" and counts in her favor. In this, as in other games of life, wives are usually allowed more privileges than other outlaws.

We have for years past noticed one very undesirable feature in the attendance of the public school in the higher grade, viz.: There are, as a rule, many more girls attending than boys. Why is this? Where are the boys? They leave school, many

The Lodge Beyond The Blue.

Is there Lodge room up in heaven.
Is there a master and brothers to?
Where the signs and grips are given,
In that land beyond the blue.

It is said, we know each other,
Tell me if you know its true;
That we will use the word brother,
In that land beyond the blue.

I think I hear the Angels singing,
Masons, Red Men, K. P. to;
I can hear their voices ringing,
In the land beyond the blue.

The day is coming, not far distant,
Let us all our vows renew;
So that we may join that meeting,
In the land beyond the blue.

There we will meet the Great Grand Master,
Wardens, Deacons, brothers, to;
Singing anthems everlasting,
In that land beyond the blue.

There we will see them from all Nations,
When the gates we have passed through;
Oh, the many million Masons,
In that land beyond the blue.

If we knew we would not meet there,
This world here we sure would rue;
But we know good Masons go there,
To that land beyond the blue.

Now we end the labor of the old year,
And begin upon the new;
Let's get ready for the Grand Lodge,
In that Lodge beyond the blue.

If we never meet again here,
Let us to each be kind and true,
If we expect to meet each other,
In the land beyond the blue.

Fraternally,

W. H. McDONALD,

Barbourville, Kentucky, December 27th, 1910.

It is becoming quite a fad in Pendleton for the girls to go hunting with the young gentlemen. A tragedy recently occurred the other day over in the neighborhood of Lenoxburg. A young man shot at his sweetheart in a dense thicket because she looked like a deer to him. She returned the compliment because he resembled a rabbit.—Falmouth Outlook.

First Christmas Observance.

Christmas gets its name from the mass celebrated in the early days of the Christian Church in honor of the birth of Christ, its first solemnization having been ordered by Pope Telesphorus. This was in or before the year 128, for in that year Pope Telesphorus died.

At first Christmas was what is known as a movable feast, just as Easter is now, and owing to misunderstandings was celebrated as late as April or May. In the fourth century an ecclesiastical investigation was ordered, and upon the authority of the tables of censors in the Roman archives December 25th was agreed upon as the date of the Savior's nativity. Tradition fixed the hour of His birth at about midnight, and this led to the celebration of a midnight mass in all the churches, a second at dawn and a third in the later morning at ten o'clock.

UNION COLLEGE BARBOURVILLE, KENTUCKY.

OUR school opens after the Holidays on January 3rd, 1911. We will have work in the following departments: ACADEMIC, NORMAL, INTERMEDIATE, PRIMARY, COMMERCIAL, MUSIC, ART and ELOCUTION. During the fall term, work has been given in all the departments except the Commercial. Our work in them has been of the highest efficiency, as attested by our students and patrons.—Our different courses in the Academic department under the direction of able and experienced teachers, which, with our excellent apparatus, equipment, laboratories, etc., give us rank with the leading institutions of our state. The Association of Colleges for Kentucky, after examining our catalogue, courses of study, and work done, placed us on the accredited list in the highest rank "A." This means that the work done in our school is accepted by them or by other Colleges and Universities without examination.

The Commercial Department will be under the charge of Prof. V. C. McDonald. His training and experience well fit him for the work. Instruction and training will be given in Book Keeping, Short Hand, Type Writing, and other subjects which go with these, such as Penmanship, Commercial Arithmetic, etc.

Owing to the interest in it at this season, we deem it proper to make special mention of the Normal Department. Profs. B. C. Lewis and Joshua J. Tye will have charge of this work. They will teach all the Normal Branches for the entire five months. Prof. Lewis has been in this work long enough to be well known. Prof. Tye is a graduate of the State Normal at Richmond. This, with his wide experience in Public School work, well equips him for the training of teachers for the Public schools.

Board in the young Men's or young Ladies' Halls is hardly $0.50 per month. This includes room, heat, light, etc. Good board can be obtained with private families at $2.50 per week.

TUITION:) In the Normal Department, per month is $2.00
In the Commercial Department, per month is 4.00

While we spend much more in instructing and caring for our students than we charge them, yet we are anxious to have all come who will. We exist for the good we may be able to do for the community. Hence, the greater our attendance, the better we are enabled to accomplish our mission.

All intending to come should notify us early, and whether they desire to board in the Halls or with private family. Students should arrive here on January 2nd.

For further information call on or address,

JAMES D. BLACK, LL.D., President.
Or PROF. B. C. LEWIS, Normal Department.

NEW IDEA MANURE SPREADER FARMERS, ATTENTION!

This Manure Spreader is different from all others. Do not buy without first investigating the merits of the same. The exclusive features not found on other machines: Drawn with coupling pole; without a clutch or cog wheel; simple to handle in loading, the same as a farm wagon. Gears suited to pulverize all manure (notice the three choices).

The machine is built on a common wagon principle, like a farm wagon, hence is the simplest, most durable, lightest draft, lowest cost per acre.
